

Natalia Arruda
Franco

Institutional and Governmental
Relations

Natália Arruda Franco is an Intern in Institutional and Governmental Relations at Perspectivas BR, supporting engagement with public and private stakeholders and monitoring strategic agendas related to ESG, energy transition, and sustainable development policies. A International Relations undergraduate at the Catholic University of Brasília, Natália has solid experience in international negotiation, report writing, and the organization of academic and institutional events.

Before joining Perspectivas BR, she worked as an International Trade Intern at BMJ Consultores Associados and held leadership positions at CONEX – Consulting in Foreign Business and ENERI – National Meeting of International Relations Students. Fluent in English and French, with intermediate proficiency in Spanish and Japanese, she stands out for her clear communication, organizational skills, and strong interest in public policy and economic diplomacy.